Imagine spending time with the people you love and love the most. A time where you can feel at ease, relax, and not have to disagree and still be loved. Even though most of the participants on this trip did not know one another, the feeling of unity, comfort, and love was evident in this blessed group.

This past June 25-29, 21 Palestinian and Israeli youth leaders from a variety of congregations throughout the Middle East and Turkey came together as the first of a three-part youth-leadership training project. The purpose of this trip was to bring Israel and Palestinian youth leaders together to train them in youth leadership work and reconciliation between these two.

Imagine spending time with the people you love most. A time where you feel with each other, but you don't know one another, the feeling of unity! My first time at a reconciliation between Israelis and Palestinians as demonstrated in the life of my brothers and sisters. When youth leaders in their respective youth groups are to light and make change. God placed an extraordinary youth leaders in their respective youth groups to be the light and make change.

One thing that was very prevalent during the trip is the unity among everyone. We spent a time talking the hills of Ephesus, exploring the ruins of Ephesus and discovering the history. Taking a picture break after lunch on our first day full of people were still smiling and tired, taking notes on the wonderful lectures.

Summer Blessings

This has been one of our busiest summer ever, especially for youth leadership trainings. Three summer camps this year, and as a result of the conflict between Israeli and Palestinian children, in Israel and other countries around the world, Israeli counselors also participated, as well as counselors from the Palestinian side. The first camp was in Beil Safarou, from July 1 to the 11, and was run with the help of a group from the Calvary Committee in Jerusalem, the second camp was in June and ran with the help of a group from the Calvary Committee in Jerusalem.

We hope to have a full and detailed family update for you in our next newsletter.

Summer is here, the kids are getting older and Kay Hommel is doing the best job in creating and planning what we are doing at the upcoming newsletter.

In the context of an irreversible conflict, the generation has a very important role to play, especially as children. As a member of the Musalaha team, I have had the opportunity to come into contact with these children (including children from all different cultures and backgrounds) and been influenced by their enthusiasm, energy, and commitment to reconciliation.

A prayer for the children

Later in life you were told we are not one day of our life without the presence of God. We are aware of His faithfulness in the past and in our present, and that we can call on Him today for our future. We know He will keep us safe from evil and that we can trust in Him. We praise you, Lord, for your faithfulness and your love. We thank you for your grace and your mercy.

We pray that you would give us the strength to face the challenges of our daily lives. We pray that you would give us the wisdom to make wise decisions, and the courage to face our fears.

We pray for all those who are in need of your comfort and your support. We pray that you would surround them with your love and your care.

We pray for all those who are in need of your healing. We pray that you would heal their bodies and their minds, and that they would find peace and comfort.

We pray for all those who are in need of your guidance. We pray that you would lead them in the way they should go, and that they would follow your path.

We pray for all those who are in need of your protection. We pray that you would protect them from harm, and that they would be safe and secure.

We pray for all those who are in need of your provision. We pray that you would supply all their needs, and that they would trust in you.

We pray for all those who are in need of your forgiveness. We pray that you would forgive them their sins, and that they would be free from guilt.

We pray for all those who are in need of your presence. We pray that you would be with them always, and that they would feel your love.

We pray for all those who are in need of your peace. We pray that you would give them peace of mind and heart, and that they would be at peace.

We pray for all those who are in need of your strength. We pray that you would give them strength and courage, and that they would be able to face any challenge.

We pray for all those who are in need of your love. We pray that you would give them love and compassion, and that they would feel your love.

We pray for all those who are in need of your wisdom. We pray that you would give them wisdom and insight, and that they would be able to make wise decisions.
